Use of the Panola County Exposition Center

The Panola County Exposition Center (hereinafter referred to as the EXPO), welcomes the use of this building on a reserved-only basis. All booking and overseeing of the building will be done and confirmed on the EXPO calendar by Panola County Maintenance Superintendent Tommy Earle during regular office hours.

Building keys are to be picked up and returned to Panola County Maintenance Superintendent Tommy Earle. If there are no conflicts with other activities scheduled for the building, keys may be picked up a day in advance for set-up. Unless otherwise authorized, keys are to be returned to Panola County Maintenance Superintendent Tommy Earle by 10:00 o'clock a.m. the next working day following the activity UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES IS THE KEY/KEYS TO BE DUPLICATED.

Reservations may be made in advance and no less than one (1) day prior to the meeting. If possible, kindly give at least 24 hours' notice if you wish to cancel.

Set-up and special arrangements are the responsibility of the user. Because of limited amount of staff time, those using the room must transport their own supplies and equipment. Refreshments such as beverages, cakes, cookies, and other finger foods may be served, but we ask that you keep them confined to the building. If the kitchen is needed, please remember to clean up. Alcoholic beverages may not be dispensed or consumed on the county premises or grounds. Due to fire hazard lighted candles or flames are not to be used in the building. The deposit and/or rental fee needs to be made out to Panola County and in the office one week prior to the event.

The EXPO IS unable to provide childcare services so people attending meetings must decide for childcare. The EXPO cannot assume responsibility for caring for unattended children. Groups and individuals using the facility are responsible for clean-up and for returning the room/rooms to the order in which it was received. If you do not clean up, then deposit will be kept. Any equipment, displays, or tables should be folded and stored at the end of the meeting. You have until 3:00 o'clock p.m. the next day to clean up after the event unless other arrangements have been made. If key(s) is/are lost renter is responsible for replacement(s).

The EXPO is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged items. Groups or individuals are responsible for reimbursing the EXPO for any damage incurred to the room and/or any items in the building.
