The successful responders shall provide towing services under this solicitation in each of the categories (light duty, medium duty, or heavy duty) for which it is listed in the Rotation List.
3. By submitting this response, the successful responders agree that they shall not charge more for Law Enforcement Panola County Paid Nonconsent Tows than the fees set forth in Exhibit A.
4. The successful responders acknowledge and agree that PCSO may amend the Rules from time to time, and that if the fees set forth in Exhibit A of the Rules are increased, such increased fees shall not apply to services provided pursuant to this Solicitation until and unless the application of such increase to these services is approved by the Panola County Commissioners Court.
5. Any invoices for unpaid towing fees for Law Enforcement Tows shall be submitted to the Panola County Auditor's office within 45 days of the tow. It is understood that if the tow fee for a Law Enforcement Tow is paid by the owner, driver, or by insurance then no invoice shall be submitted to the Auditor.
6. The estimated tows for Panola County to be provided pursuant to this Solicitation are 10 per fiscal year, at a total cost estimated not to exceed $5,000 per fiscal year. However, the County will not be obligated to purchase the estimated quantity or any other particular quantity during the year. The successful responder shall have no claim against the County for anticipated profits for the quantities called for, diminished, or deleted.

QUESTIONS CONCERNING THIS RESPONSE SHOULD BE DIRECTED TO THE
