Remarks This vehicle is a total loss. The liftgate is pushed forward almost to the back doors. The roof is buckled and the headliner will need to be replaced. Also, both quarter panels and the liftgate are destroyed. The Sheriff's Department will remove all the equipment that they can salvage from the vehicle. Since I cannot get to the rear compartment, I do not know what, if any, of their equipment is damaged.	Open Items

Buyer Beware

February 12, 2023

By S.M. from Hickory,NC

Owns this car

Bought this used in 2020 with 50k miles, got a great deal or so I thought. AC went out 2 months after purchasing. Has had mechanical failure after failure and of course it's all been out of pocket costs. There's only 98,500 miles on it now and I'm currently looking for a new vehicle before the transmission decides to blow up. The new vehicle won't be a GM product. Only things I like about this car, the interior is nice for what you get, not too flashy but just enough. Rides really well and is fun to drive.

Serious car issues after 2 months of purchasing it. I was told I needed to put down extensive amount of money.....and they sold me a 2015 lemon.....

Good car! Better than a Nissan.

May 13, 2021

By Lori from Poughkeepsie

Owns this car

The car is gorgeous but the dealership did not take good care of it nor provided proper teaching to any of its clients about how to maintain it. They just sold it and did oil changes but did not diagnose it correctly and even with the warranty did not do the right things to repair the car or treated us fairly. They are not trustworthy. The car is gorgeous and comfortable.
